

North West Junior and Youth Clubs

Introduction to LeagueNet

Introduction

- Kelly Barrett – RFL Head of Delivery Community Game Competitions
- Tim White - RFL Competition Officer for NWML
- Alex Stephens – RFL Systems Officer

Introduction

- LeagueNet introduced in 2017
- NW Youth and Junior registrations are on LeagueNet – Currently entered manually by David Lowe
- All Competitions use the system

Player Registrations

Registration Process - 2020

All new players will register Online on LeagueNet

All re-registrations will be Online on LeagueNet

Reminder - New Registrations

- All new players must register themselves on LeagueNet with, where appropriate, a parent / guardian consenting to their application.
- A link will be provided via email / LeagueNet Support website / website.
- David Lowe will continue to check for proof of age and correct photo upload before confirming any new players.

Re-Registrations

- The parent/guardian will register their child, using the League registration link, using the email address that has been updated.
- In the event that an email address has changed then this will need updating before the registration process can be completed.

Transfers

- Any player that has been active in 2019 and wish to move to a different club will be required to follow the transfer rules set out by the league.
- David Lowe will be responsible for processing transfers on LeagueNet.

Email Addresses

- Free accounts include: Hotmail, Yahoo, Gmail
- In 2019, 93% of adults in the UK used the internet. Almost all adults aged 16 to 34 years (99%) were recent internet users.
- In 2014, 87% of the adult population in the UK had an active email address.

Common Problems

Common Problems

The email address we hold for the player is not the same as what the parent is trying to use

A parent is trying to register their child as a new player but they have previously played and should be re-registered

Parent has tried previously unsuccessfully. Needs to clear cache or try in an incognito window
